

WEEKEND RECAP: Is there a spot where you feel safe and comfortable? Share a photo

Your replies

In the last week you shared information and photos of physical places in your life where you go to when you need safety and comfort.

So, to recap, what we need to feel safe is often just an armchair or a bed, some entertainment and some meaningful work, and we need to be close to nature. And yes, don't forget the alcohol 🍷!

Interestingly, staying safe and comfortable doesn't cost that much. Anything between 200 CZK for a bottle of wine or train tickets to Šumava, and 20,000 CZK for a good bed or sofa which we can use for years. Don't tell this to big corporations (or Alza 😊), they wouldn't like it.

Of course, we also need a few people we love around, or some time to be alone with our thoughts. But that doesn't cost any money, does it?

Great language

- I can't imagine life without my bed. > Nedokážu si představit svůj život bez...
- [This] one was made by my dexterous carpenter. > skvělé, že hledáte přesná neotřelá slova, tohle znamená "šikovný, zručný"
- [My favorite spot is the] same as Lenka's] > Moje oblíbené místo je stejné jako Lenčino.
- In Prague I am thankful [for] the field. > jiná forma slova "thank", pro "jsem vděčný za"
- I play PC games and do homework. > ano, je to kolokace, ustalené spojení, někdy pleteme s "make homework".
- In Slovakia where I was born I [sometimes] have breakfast in my garage. > čeština má jedno slovo "snídat", angličtina potřebuje dvě: "have breakfast", "have a shower", "have a smoke"... kuřáci vědí 🍷 😊)
- I like nature, far from other people and city and traffic [...]. > "far", pro "daleko", "daleko od"
- [The] second one is on my balcony. > Blízko češtině, "balkon", ale přece trochu jinak.
- There are apricot tree, apple tree, plum tree, cherry tree pear tree. > v češtině jedno slovo "jabloň", v angličtině musíme dodat slovo "tree"
- I [go] there on vacation. > "holiday" britská angličtina, "vacation" americká angličtina, ale jinak je to stejné

Things to improve

- because it is possible make a bed > It is possible to make it into a bed...
possible to do, anebo zaměňte prostě s you can make it into a bed
- My the most comfortable place in my flat is my bed. > The most comfortable place in my flat is...* "My" a "the" vyjadřují určitost, ale neradí stojí vedle sebe

- I like this my place. > I like this place. "This" a "my" vyjadřují určitost, ale neradí stojí vedle sebe
- When is nice weather I sit on the rock and I read. > When the weather is nice... When there is nice weather... v angličtině potřebujeme vždy podmět.
- [...] is not the place where I can seat or lay comfortably > [...] is not the place where I can sit or lie comfortably, "seat", je podstatné jméno "sedadlo", "lay" je buď "položít", nebo minulý tvar od "lie"
- It is trying after work also [use the phone or play on the Xbox. > It is difficult after work... "trying" opravdu znamená "náročný, umorný", ale používáme to spíš před podstatným jménem "trying times" - "těžká doba", "trying day" - "úmorný den"
- Our house is in small village near Kladno. There is big garden. > in a small village, there is a big garden
- I like to be outdoor. > I like to be outdoors. "outdoor sports", přídavné jméno "venkovní", "outdoors", příslovce "venku"

Spelling (pravopis)

lie down, because, together, armchair, forest, beech tree, safety, most of the time, knock, tiny, begin, apricot, in the mountains, outdoors